Psalm Response: This is the day the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad.

READING II

GOSPEL

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

God our Creator,

you made us all that we are and gave us all that we have. Help us to live a life of gratitude by using your gifts to serve others in your name.

Jesus my Redeemer,

you call us to share your life by loving service to others. Grant us the courage to live as your disciples.

Holy Spirit of God,

fire our hearts with your love and make us good and generous stewards of your life within us.

We pray Lord,

that you open the minds and hearts of all the people of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, that we may joyfully accept your call to live as stewards of your abundant gifts for our salvation and your greater glory. Amen.

THE BANE AND BLESSED

Recently someone recommended that I read the book "Their Eyes Were Watching God." That title stays with me as we celebrate this weekend with those young people of our parish who for the first time receive the Lord in Holy Communion. Like all of us these children will be wearing masks, but unlike any of us at our First Communion these children must learn how to receive the Lord while wearing one.

I won't be able to see their faces during Mass so I will watch their eyes. Already I know what I will see there. I will see excitement and enthusiasm. I will see sparkle and energy. In their eyes I will see the passion and fire of life. These days of pandemic I have learned that so much can be communicated with the eyes, so much about a person can be learned by looking in the eyes. I believe that in Christian anatomy the eyes are linked to the heart. Bodies grow tired and weary, but eyes can be always young, fresh, innocent and loving. There are eyes that forget they are created to see wonders and eyes that are always eager to see.

This weekend I keep my eyes open to these children in whom I see such joy. Their eyes are watching for God. And no matter what our age may be, all who receive the Lord in Eucharist should know the same joy because with these children we are watching for God. And Eucharist tells us that God never takes his eye off us.

The Lord be with you.
Father John Parr

Our St. Elizabeth Food Pantry is so very grateful to our parishioners who continue to support us through their many donations. We are also very thankful to Brenengen Auto, who held a fundraiser in late fall and made a large donation to our pantry. Likewise, we remain very grateful to Rotary Lights. In addition to the large amount of food we received from our nights of working at the event, Rotary Lights recently presented our pantry with a check from their funds. We are ever so appreciative of these, and other local businesses and individuals, who make it possible for us to serve our sisters and brothers in Christ.

All we are and all we have are gifts from God. As Christian disciples, we strive to give back in service that which God has gifted to us. We are blessed at our parish to have many people who step up and give of their time, talent, and treasure. We would like to thank the many people who assisted us with our Holy Week and Easter preparations and liturgies. Thanks to our altar servers and our readers. Thanks to those who decorated our worship space, outdoor planters, prepared our palms, helped with the carrying of the Cross, lit our fire, and sorted our Magnifikids. A special shout out to our Hospitality Ministers who helped greet, seat, and usher the many people who attended our liturgies. We were blessed to have so many gather together as a parish family once again...and we hope and pray that we will ALL be together in person again soon. May Easter joy shine upon you and your families. Christ is indeed risen! Alleluia!

20/21 Diocesan Annual Appeal - SEAS is only $13,070 away from reaching our $86,710 target. Please consider an extra gift so we can reach our goal. There are extra pledge cards available on the table in the gathering space.

EARTH DAY

The theme for Earth Day 2021 is Restore Our Earth, which focuses on natural processes and emerging green technologies that can restore harmony with the world's ecosystems. EARTHDAY.ORG's Earth Day Live digital event will take place on April 22, 2021 from 12PM ET- 4PM ET and will include world climate leaders, grassroots activists, nonprofit innovators, thought leaders, industry leaders, artists, musicians, celebrities, and more. Please join EARTHDAY.ORG, and over 1 billion participants around the world, as a partner for Restoring Our Earth Today. Let us care for God's creation together.

When you or someone you love is in hospital, we would visit you, pray with you, and bring you the sacraments. However, due to regulations, hospitals will not inform us when one of our parish family is in care. Please ask someone to call our parish office at 608-526-4424. Thank you Help Wanted-The Food Pantry is looking for an individual or a couple interested in working in the Mobile Wafer Food Truck. This Mobile Truck is in our parking lot on the first Tuesday of each month from 9 – 11 am. Our volunteer assists the Wafer staff in helping guests pick out items and bag them. Safety protocol is being followed and it is light work. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Carol Reider at 526-4424 or carol@seasholmen.org.

For your marriage-It's beginning to look and feel a lot like spring! Make the effort to get some extra rays of sunshine with your spouse, which is healthy for you both physically and mentally. Glory in God's creation. Take a walk or a hike together. Make a plan to start a container garden. Go miniature golfing, biking, or fishing. These activities will enable you to spend time together, enjoy the season, and share common interests...all great for your marriage!

Prayer for Divine Mercy

*Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible,
look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us,
that in difficult moments we might not despair
nor become despondent,
but with great confidence submit ourselves
to Your holy will,
which is Love and Mercy itself.
Amen.*

~concluding prayer of the Divine Mercy Chaplet

Roll Away the Stone

Tom Conry

Verses: Cantor

1. They have been saying all our plans are empty. They have been saying "Where is their God now?"

Refrain: Roll away the stone, see the glory of God. Roll away the stone.

2. They have been saying no one will remember. They have been saying power rules the world.

3. They have been saying no one hears the singing. They have been saying all our strength is gone.

4. They have been saying "All of us are dying." They have been saying "All of us are dead."
